

SOCIETY

MRS. CADDIE WINSTON HERRINGTON,
111 Erwin Street. Phone 426.

Sewing Club.
Miss Helen Lake entertained the Sewing Club Wednesday afternoon in a delightful manner. The usual sewing hour was a busy one, after which luncheon was served.

An "At Home."
Invitations are out for an "at home" Tuesday afternoon with Mesdames W. G. Jameson, Leland Douthit and Lev. Frederick in honor of Mesdames M. A. Davey and Lovell Bay.

Complimentary.
Mrs. M. Halporn entertained all her relatives on Wednesday afternoon in honor of her sister, Mrs. Abe Segal, of Jefferson, who is visiting her. Five hundred was the game of the afternoon, after which covers were laid and an elegant two-course luncheon served. Mrs. Halporn was assisted in entertaining by her sister, Miss Jeanette Leiser, of Marshall.

Picture Party.
Last evening Mrs. Henry Ash complimented her daughter, Miss Phyllis, and her guest, Miss Alma French of Galveston, with a beautiful party, the occasion being the birthday of Miss Phyllis and the eve of the departure of Miss Alma for her home. Twelve couples enjoyed the occasion, and a prettier picture was never seen than all in a body, chaperoned by Mesdames H. Ash, H. Spielberger and Miss Lillian Ash, with Miss Adria Spielberger, the prettiest picture of all, in her innocent babyhood. The Lyric and Gem were taken in, after which all repaired to a cream parlor, where an elaborate spread was in waiting of fruits, cake and cream. The remainder of the evening was passed at the Ash home, where a good time was enjoyed, ending with a delicious luncheon.

Mother Goose Party.
The following invitations were sent out to friends: "Winifred Colley wants you to come to her party, Thursday, Sept. 29th, 1910, to meet Mother Goose and friends, 216 Trinity street." The guests of honor were Queen of Hearts, Dorris Horwitz; Jack Horner, Tom Colley; Little Miss Muffett Helen Maier; Humpty Dumpty, Paul Colley; the old woman who went to market her eggs for to sell, Eleanor Watson; Little Boy Blue,

Douglas Windsor; Little Bo Peep, Helen O'Flynn; Miss Curly Locks, the hostess, Winifred Colley; Curly Lock's escort, Ed Short; Mother Goose, Mrs. Winifred Middleton. Each guest was ushered into the hall, decorated to represent scenes from Mother Goose story book, in red, white and blue. At the door Mother Goose, Mrs. Middleton; Curly Locks, Miss Winifred Colley, and her escort, Ed Short, received the guests. Each character marched under the arch, pantomiming parts represented. The judges were Misses Marie Price and Maude O'Flynn. Each child guessed who was who, a prize being given to the one guessing most correctly. After each guess, the little ones were invited to the parlor by Miss Maudie Frank Bonds, and seated there until all arrived. Then the Mother Goose party passed into the dining room, Mother Goose going in the parlor, calling each by name in turn, and in Mother Goose rhyme; they came forward, with the rhymes interspersed with music. After the program all marched through the room back into the dining room. Mother Goose leading. A surprise awaited them, a big Jack Horner pie, with red, white and blue ribbons; each pulled a ribbon and with it a candy plum or tiny horn. After this fun all were seated and Mother Goose, assisted by Humpty Dumpty, distributed circus balloons; next cream and cake in pretty colors. Beautiful music was enjoyed during the evening by Mrs. O. W. Trice and Miss Olive and Anna Trice. At the close of the evening it was announced that Misses Virginia Rutledge and Gretchen Lacy tied for the prize, Miss Virginia being the winner and receiving a box of lovely candy. This was a happy occasion for the little ones, and gave joy to the grown folks, too.

Mrs. Jordani and Miss Gertrude Nass have returned to Galveston after a visit to Mrs. L. Durr.

Miss Fannie Maud DuPuy is visiting relatives at Crockett.

Mrs. R. T. Jackson and daughter, Kathleen, and little Augustus have returned from a summer visit to Georgia.

Mrs. W. H. Gohlman and children are visiting at Houston.

COTTON IS MOVING SLOW A BIG UNION MEETING

Receipts Here Today One Thousand Bales Short as Compared With Last Year.

There had been up to yesterday afternoon 3417 bales of cotton marketed here of this year's crop, as against 4244 bales for the same period last year. This is partly due, no doubt, to the determination of many growers to hold their cotton for the top price, and the lateness of the crop, which is three weeks later than last year. The farmers have been urged to hold their cotton for fifteen cents, and many of them are holding.

Visiting Preacher.
Rev. W. Frazier Smith, son of Presiding Elder Rev. J. T. Smith, will preach at both services at Grace church tomorrow.

Y. M. C. A. Services.
Rev. J. C. Oehler will have charge of the service at the Y. M. C. A. tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock. Subject, "The Great Question." Mr. W. H. Werremeyer will sing a special selection. All men are invited. Come in your shirt sleeve or your overalls, and feel perfectly at home with us. Mr. Clarence Pearson will talk to the boys at 2:15. All boys are expected to be present.

New Rule For Stopovers.
(Herald Special.)
Chicago, Oct. 1.—Railroads covering nearly every section of the country today discontinued the practice of granting stopover privileges on limited tickets wherever such stopover has operated to extend the original limits of the tickets.

If you want to buy a modern four room cottage, close in, cheap, see Mrs. Alfred Marshall, who will arrive in Palestine Oct. 2nd, 1910. This cottage must positively be sold in 30 days. See Mrs. Marshall at 311 Austin St., or Charles Threasto at First National Bank.

By the Local Protestant Churches Begins Monday Evening at Grace Methodist Church.

The union revival services, to be participated in by the local protestant churches, will begin next Monday evening, and the first services will be held in Grace Methodist church. The pastors of the various churches will do the preaching, and the choir will be composed of members of the different churches. It is urgently requested by the pastors that all of the people unite in making these services profitable and interesting. Further announcements will be made from day to day as to the services.

At the Airdome.
The management says: A large crowd was present at the Airdome last night. Adams and Lewis, in their musical act, went big and their work was a treat to Airdome patrons. Tonight will conclude the engagement of these two clever artists, and the Airdome will open on Monday night with George W. Lemley's big dramatic and vaudeville show. This show carries seven vaudeville acts, including a sister team, soloists, dancers and musicians, concluding the performance with a laughable tabloid comedy. One reel of high-class motion pictures will also be exhibited.

New Bookkeeper.
Mr. L. J. Guilbeau, late of Houston, has arrived to accept a position with the Pearlstone Grocery company, as bookkeeper. He succeeds Mr. J. R. Walker, who will go to West Texas, after having been with the Pearlstone house for a number of years.

Exciting Runaway.
A horse ran away on Main street late last evening, and made a record run through the business district. The horse fell at the lower end of the street and injured himself.
